

cdg, the complete solution, has been in circulation since 1989 but have only recently re-branded from the well established company name Concept Design Group...

CDG Newsletter February 2007

Here at CDG we aim to provide a service that exceeds client's expectations.

Over the past 18 years we have worked with a variety of clientele from establishments such as Breifne, Microsoft and AIB to companies like Classic Marketing, Carton House, The Hanly Group and many more CDG understands that each client requires a diverse outcome and we aim to assist and meet these needs in the most satisfactory way possible. This is why we at CDG work so closely with our customers, as we believe the best way to understand your needs, is to understand you.

CDG's most recent work includes:

The very recent launch of Kilronan Castle developed by Laragan Developments. This includes website, brochure, signage, advertisements and DVD. Check: www.kilronancastle.ie

KILRONAN CASTLE

The entire suite of design for Castle Dargan Estate; their website can be viewed at www.castledargan.com

Breifne (a rediscovered region situated in the Northwest of Ireland. The project involved the development of their website, a short DVD documentary, tourism guide and a large amount of signage. Check: www.breifne.ie
